THE COUNTRY PAPER.

Amid the pile of papers,
That swamp my desk each day
And drive me weak with clipping
And filing stuff away,
Comes once a week—on Thursday—
The quaint old four-page sheet
That's printed up in Pelham,
A drowsy county seat.

You see, 'twas up in Pelham
That first I saw the light,
And—well, my heart grows softer
And I feel my eyes shine bright;
Right reverent my touch it,
The local's what I'm seeking—
The patented inside.

Here it is: "The County,"
And "Jotting," "Local News"—
You learn who's traded horses
And who have rented pews;
It tells about the schoolhouse

Where we used to sit and dream,
A-watching dust specks dancing
In the Sunlight's shifty beam.

Oh, toilers in life's workshops,
Are not those dream-mists so set,
Which memory casts about us
When past and present meet?
And so, I love that paper
From the village in the hills
For the old life that it weaves,
For the weariness it stills.

Sunday is regular preaching day at the Methodist Church. Hope there will be a good crowd out.

How about the proposed daily mail from this place to Irvine? Everyone concedes that it is badly needed but this is not getting this route through. Let a petition be circulated at once and the matter pushed through.

Ordinance No. 1

Series of 1902.

LIQUOR LICENSE ORDINANCE.

The City Council of Clay City do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. No person or persons shall sell any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within the town of Clay City without first obtaining a license therefor from the City Council thereof, application for which license shall be made in writing to the clerk of the Council at least five days before the granting of said license.

Sec. 2. The sum to be paid each year that such license may be granted shall be as follows:

For license to keep a saloon the sum $1,000 per annum; for license to merchants to sell such liquors who sell by the quart, the sum of $1,000; for license to druggists to sell liquors in quantities not less than a quart, the sum of $1,000; for license to sell ale, beer or porter by the wholesale in quantities not less than five gallons, including all agents, the sum of $1,000.

Sec. 3. The license mentioned above to merchants and druggists shall not authorize the sale by them of such liquors in quantities less than a quart, and the liquors so sold shall not be drunk on the premises, or upon premises adjacent thereto.

Sec. 4. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this article by selling within said city any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors without first obtaining the license or licenses required to be obtained by this ordinance shall be fined in any sum not less than $20 nor more than $100, and each and every sale of such liquors or any of them, without first obtaining the license therefor, shall be deemed and held to be a separate offense.

Sec. 5. The City Council shall have full power, right and authority to refuse to grant any license provided for herein, when, in its discretion, the Council considers the applicant an unsuitable person to receive same, or that the granting of same will be injurious to the peace or good morals of the city, and it shall have like power, right and authority to annul, revoke or suspend such license and the privileges thereunder whenever the licensee keeps a disorderly place, or, whenever, for any reason, the City Council in its discretion deems such action necessary or proper in order to preserve the peace, good order or good morals of the city, of which necessity and propriety the Council shall be the exclusive judges.

Sec. 6. The license or licenses granted or issued under this ordinance shall indicate the street and house in which the liquor shall be sold, and said license shall not authorize the sale of liquor in any other house, nor shall it be transferred or assigned to any other person, provided, however, the City Council may, in its discretion, and upon such terms and conditions as it may fix, consent to a change of location or assignment of licenses.

Sec. 7. The licenses hereby authorized shall be in writing and issued by the clerk of the City Council, but only upon express order of the Board entered upon its journal of proceedings, and not then until the applicant shall have paid to said clerk or the City Treasurer, the license fee hereinbefore fixed, and the clerk's fee for issuing same, which is fixed at $1.00. And said license shall not authorize the sale of such liquors until the applicant shall have obtained license from the County Court of Powell County as required by law. Said license may fix the terms and conditions under which it may be exercised.

Sec. 8. Any person holding a merchant's or druggist's license as above explained who shall sell any of said liquors in quantities less than a quart, or any liquors to be drunk on the premises, or adjacent premises, or otherwise than as permitted in said license, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this ordinance, and for each offense shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 9. This ordinance shall be in effect and force from and after its publication.

J. F. Cox, Clerk. J. H. Terry, Mayor.

Patent medicine advertisers sometimes overdo the thing. For instance, one of them is exploiting the alleged oldest man in America, who is made to say that he attributes his long life to the use of a medicine that has only been on the market a few years.

There are doubtless Senators and Representatives whose time is worth more than the $5,000 a year now paid them, but we should not care to insure the re-election of those who vote for the proposed increase of $2,500 in their salaries. There are a whole lot of men in this country who don't make $5,000 a year.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,

Billions Colic.
H. Seever a carpenter and builder of Kenton, Tenn., when suffering intensely from an attack of bilious colic, sent to a near by drug store for something to relieve him. If all the canine owners in the State would do like Col. Jack Chinn, there would be no need of a dog law, and the sheep raisers would not want one. The Colonel's got mixed up with a lot of his neighbor's sheep the other night and got the better of the flock. As soon as Col. Chinn ascertained the facts and damage, he paid the owner promptly twice the value of the sheep killed and then killed the guilty dog.

Seed a Fight a Brewin'.

"Up in Clay county, once upon a time, a Christmas frolic ended in a tragedy," says the Richmond Register, in an issue of 20 years ago. "Old Mrs. Philpott was a witness. 'Tell us about the fight said the Lawyer. 'I never seed no fight,' replied the old lady. Well, then tell us what you did see,' remarked the lawyer in a canteless sort of way, thinking she knew nothing. Mrs. Philpott moved her snubonnet back, lit her pipe and proceeded: 'Cy Sewell he gave a Christmas dance, an' me an' a lot of others wuz thar. The boys and gals got to dancin' an' as the boys went dancin' round and round, they got to slapping each other, and finally one boy slapped another boy harder than he lowd to and knocked him down. An' the boy that got knocked down he jumped up an' jerked out a great big knife, 'bout as long as your arm, an' whacked the feller that knocked him down right across the middle, from side to side. An' then the brother of the feller what got cut, he pulled a British bulldog, about the size of a ham, an' he let go six 44's right square at the feller that had the knife; an' jest then Bill Smiley—Bill's a cousin of Jake Hayes what got shot—come runnin' out'n old man Sewell's room with a double barrel shotgun an' let off both barrels in the crowd, an' old Sewell he got excited an' jerked a Winchester rifle out'n from under the bed, and went to primpin' lead into the gang; an' by that time the house was full of smoke, 'n' flashin' an' hollerin' and I seed thar was goin' to be a fight and I left the house."

Broke Up a Saloon.

It is reported that a Mercer man opened the first and only saloon that was ever in Perryville, and that when the fathers and sons began to be out late at night and return home a little off about the women of that pretty village assembled in that saloon every day, and did their day's work at sewing and knitting. There was none of the Carrie Nation hatchet smashing, no prayer meeting held in the saloon nor threats made but this good domestic and temperance work had the desired effect of firing out the liquor dealer from Perryville and no other has dared venture there since.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

W. R. Jones, a brakeman on the Cincinnati Southern, while standing on a moving box car was struck by a telephone wire that had sagged. Seven of his teeth were knocked out and his mouth was split back to his ears. Jones grasped the wire in both hands, and when the train moved from under him he was hanging in midair.
